

A Very Kettlesing Christmas:

As Christmas approaches, with Covid about,

Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse and, Santa's Elves have been told that they just can't go out.

The North Pole has gone into total lockdown,

How quiet it will be in this Christmassy town.

But I'm here to tell you, there's nothing to fear,

As the Elves have more time for toy making and exercising Reindeer – with only one other Reindeer, from another household, adhering to social distancing guidelines of course!

Santa's job has been classified as a Key Worker,

So there's no need for the children to all go berserk...er? – As you all know, this is not my day job!

You'll all get your presents on this Christmas Eve,

As long as each and every one of us still just believe.

So now that we know things with Santa are cool,

What about Kettlesing Felliscliffe School?

Well it certainly isn't a regular year,

But we've plenty to celebrate, never you fear.

We can send our friends cards – between the 1st-11th December – but they'll go into quarantine,

That way we'll know that they are all nice and clean.

We still have the panto – Oh yes we do! – all be it remote,
You can still shout and cheer, just don't get a sore throat – although this is not one of the three Covid symptoms, as highlighted in our recent letter home to parents.
We can't have a party, if there's more than six,
So Mrs Foy will pull something out of her bag of tricks.

We'll still get dressed up in our best party clothes,
Miss Lowde, don't forget your sparkling pantyhose!

We'll eat a Christmas feast, served up by the teachers,
You know the ones, those legendary creatures.
There's so much to look forward to at this festive time,
I just hope you're enjoying my Christmassy rhyme?

So Boris and Covid might keep us locked up,
But at Kettlesing, we'll still have a jolly knee's up!
If you'd like to see all of the fun we have planned,
Read this week's Newsletter, as long as you get it, with our dodgy broadband.

Christmas is coming and we'll still make it great,
We'll celebrate in style, with each and every classmate.
I know that it's early to spread Christmas cheer,
But we're hoping the next one is a much better year.

So from all of us here, we would just like to say,
It's business as usual – with a few little tweaks – down Kettlesing way!

I'll end my rhyme here, and say my Goodbye's to you,
As I really have piles of work I should do – just please don't tell Mrs Jackson-Ward this though!
My hands need a wash and a sanitise too,
As they haven't been done since 11.02
We can all be assured that, through this awful plight,
It's still a Merry Christmas for all, now from me, it's goodnight!
