Snowy Owls Update

Wow Reception, this week, you have completed so many tasks! It's brilliant to see you all taking part. Zoom call day will be Monday morning (25th) so be ready to see your friends from Reception.

Mrs Bowman

Well done to everyone in KS1 this week. We've had a bit of a funny week but I have been so impressed with all the work that has been produced. Everyone should be very proud of themselves and I look forward to seeing you all soon.

Kestrels Update

This week in Kestrels we have been continuing to develop our writing by describing characters and settings. The children have been trying so hard and making great progress. We have also been doing thoughtful and creative work in PSHE and Forest Schools thanks to Mrs Dickinson and Miss Miller. Thank you also to Mrs Parkin for all her hard work behind the scenes.

Red Kites Update

KS2 are taking part in the annual SumDog Competition once again. This begins today and will finish on Thursday evening, it would be amazing if we could hold on to our 1st place title. Good luck!

We enjoyed a very active science lesson on Zoom this week, where the children were testing the effects of exercise on their heart rates.

Mrs Foy

Please be aware that Parent Consultations will take place between 8th-12th February. The appointments will once again be telephone appointments. The forms will go live next week on Parent Mail.

Dear Parents/Carers,

This week has been very challenging for our federation with Kettlesing Felliscliffe and Ripley have had confirmed cases of Covid and therefore closing. Our thoughts are with those that are ill.

Kettlesing has been deep cleaned and is currently all set to re-open on time—Monday 25th January. Our staff will come back throughout the next couple of weeks if they are well enough to do so and we look forward to welcoming everyone back.

On the 26th January at 4pm, Creative Education are holding a free webinar on ‘How to Support Anxious Online Learners’ which is aimed at parents and professionals. If you are interested in attending this, simply log onto their website to book a place – creativeeducation.co.uk.

We are half way through this lockdown hopefully. Everyone has done such a remarkable job and we just need to keep focussed on the end goal now. We all need to have something amazing planned to look forward to in the summer!
